

Library Membership

The membership of the KDU Library is open to all the registered students and staff of the KDU, the members of KDU affiliated institutions, and the members of other registered institutions.

The cadets and commissioned officers of the internal degree programs, members of the KDU staff and the members of the KDU affiliated institutions are entitled to Book Borrowing and Reference facilities free of charge. The day scholars, students of the FGS, students registered for short courses, and foreign officers and the members of the other institutions have to pay a library fee to get the membership of the KDU libraries. The entitlements are mentioned in the table given.

Library membership forms (Student, Staff)

Rules & Regulations